Dog and Crating Information

- No dogs may be left in the building overnight. Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up after their dogs and leaving their crating areas clean.
- All dogs must always be on leash when on trial grounds except when in the designated warm up area or while competing in the ring. The entire Pima County Fairgrounds property is considered the trial grounds. For safety reasons flexi-leads may not be used in or around the building.
- CRATES & NO DOG ZONES (NDZ)! All Participants are expected to have a crate/contained place where their dog can relax. In support of the AKC rule to “exit the ring with the dog under control” there will be definite NO DOG ZONES (NDZ) at this trial. This will include checking in, arm-band pick-up, checking the rally score board, etc. We will all work together to support each and every run at our trial without adding additional “proofing” as handlers compete, enter, or exit the ring.
- Eligible unentered dogs are welcome at our trial as long as they have appropriate quiet crate behaviors. They are also welcome to participate in afternoon match time all three days at the same cost, after entered dogs. Please note, unentered dogs are NOT ELIGIBLE for use of the warm up ring before or during trial hours. Trial workers/volunteers, competitors traveling with their seniors or new show prospects – this is the show for you! Thurber Hall is a 13,000 sq ft building.
- All dogs must be on leash, or confined to a crate, when not in the ring or designated warm-up area. Crating will be in the designated crating areas.
